

Shen YuanLing (May 28th, 2003)

She has Down Syndrome and is very active. She likes to help to clean rooms by sweeping the floors and wiping tables and windows. She enjoys many activities like using play dough, blowing bubbles, coloring, sewing cards, etc. She loves to go out to play on the swing, slide, the glider etc. She has a favorite doll which she always takes with her. If it is missing, she cries until she finds it. She is good runner. We have to watch her carefully when we take her out.

Shen JiaChen (Jan. 5th)

She likes to dance. Her caregiver used to teach her Chinese exercise dance and she imitates the dance very well. She needs supervision when we go outside. Because she likes to wander off by herself. She likes to push the children in the wheelchairs or strollers. She is very possessive of toys, books and snacks, especially cell phones so she can listen to music. She knows how to use it. She enjoys coloring and cutting with scissors. She also likes to blow bubbles.

Shen JiaXian (Aug. 23th, 2003)

His is always smiling and happy. He likes to play with any kind of blocks. His favorite play is to ride on the playground glider. He is very effective in letting people know that he wants to go outside. As soon as he sees a volunteer or MaMa Migyeong, he looks for his shoes and takes them to someone to put on him . He has a good appetite and he is always ready to eat.

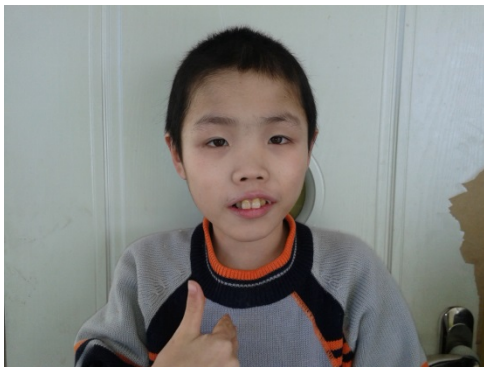

Shen JiaCe (Sept. 6th, 2002)

He is a very active boy who likes running and jumping. But he doesn't want to go out when it is very windy. He is very scared by wind. But, he is calm when he covers his body with a big jacket or blanket when he sits on the glider. That's why he grabs someone when we take him out. He likes trampoline and ride on the glider. Of course, he likes snacks a lot.

Shen TongJun (June 20th, 2005)

He is very handsome boy and neat. He wants to put everything in the place where it belongs. He likes to listen to music. He moves his body in rhythm when he listens to music. Like many children with autism, he enjoys activities that are repetitive and provide sensory stimulation like playing with paper. He likes matching shapes. He also likes to go out and play on the play ground.

Shen LiLai (Jan. 6th, 2003)

He likes to be taken for walks. When we encourage him to join dancing, he participates and enjoys. He likes to eat more than any other kid. He is very excited when he sees food. He prefers to play by himself unless we walk together. He is very gentle. He would rather ride on playground equipment than jump on the trampoline.

Shen JiaZhe (Dec. 5th, 1999)

He doesn't want to play with toys by himself. But, he enjoys matching shapes and playing with blocks with a volunteer. The winter in ShenYang is very cold and long. So, he is very excited to go out when the weather gets better. He likes to go for walks outside. He likes to jump on the enclosed trampoline.
